ENGLISH WOMAN TO LECTURE AT MUSEUM, Friday, October 30

A lecture on "George Stubbs -- the Man and the Painter" will be given at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Friday afternoon, October 30 at 4:30 by Miss Helen Kapp, Director of the Abbott Hall Art Gallery in England. Miss Kapp will discuss the colorful career of this typically 18th century Englishman who was an extraordinary animal painter, specifically famous for studies and paintings of horses.

Miss Kapp herself is an illustrator, wood-engraver and painter. She has written articles and essays on art and art education and has traveled through many European and Near Eastern countries.
